STUDENT LIFE AT THE UNIVERSITY OF TORONTO

This month, we find out about a typical day in the life of Darren Harley.

Darren is a music student at the University of Toronto, in Ontario, Canada. He lives in Yorkville, in an apartment with two other students. Darren's day starts at 7:00 a.m. He gets up and takes a shower. At 7:45 a.m. he walks to college, and has coffee and toast in a coffee shop on campus when he arrives. His first class starts at 9:15 a.m. Darren enjoys music and the classes are interesting. At 1:00 p.m. he has lunch with his friends. After lunch he has another class, from 2:00 p.m. until 3:30 p.m., and then he goes to the library to study. At 4:30 p.m. he catches a bus and goes shopping downtown. He goes home around 6:30 p.m. In the evenings, he doesn't study. He reads, watches football, or goes out with his friends. He goes to bed at 1:00 a.m. For Darren, a typical day at the University of Toronto is hard, but fun!
