Enter our fun competition by answering a few simple questions for the chance to spend a week in the home of the stars! You'll stay in the hotel where stars love to stay ... the Hollywood Heights. Who knows, you might meet Brad Pitt in the elevator ... or Julia Roberts in the parking lot. You'll stay in the luxurious "Beverly Hills" suite with a waterbed, hot tub and personal home cinema.

While you are in Hollywood we'll arrange a number of sightseeing trips to the many fascinating places of interest in the area. You can't miss the Universal Studios tour. This is where they make all the famous movies. Hollywood Boulevard is a favorite place to visit. You'll see Mann's Chinese Theatre, where the stars leave their foot and handprints in the courtyard. There are over 200 prints of Hollywood stars past and present. Or walk along the sidewalk on the famous boulevard and you'll see a number of star-shaped stones in the sidewalk. The "Walk of Fame" began in 1960 when 2,500 blank stars were put down, and now over 2,000 have the name of a star of radio, TV or movies written on them.

Of course your visit won't be complete without a photo of the Hollywood sign. When the sign was put up in the 1940s, it originally said "Hollywoodlands". It was advertising houses for sale but it looked so good that the town council decided to keep it. The letters making "lands" were removed in 1946.

So what are you waiting for? Enter our competition here.

PRACTICE #10

❖ Read and write T (true), F (false) for each statement.

- You will stay in an expensive and comfortable hotel.
- You'll definitely stay at the hotel.
- Universal Studios is not there anymore.
- Most of "The Godfather" are famous names.
- The Hollywood sign didn't always say "Hollywood".
