Telling a story

In your words

1 With a partner, look at the pictures and take turns telling the story.

A: Jake was sleeping in bed late at night.

B: It was 2 a.m.

A: Suddenly he woke up because he heard a noise.

B: He was very scared, so he ...

A bad night for Jake

2 Ask and answer questions about the story with your partner.

A: How did Jake hurt his head?

B: He was going downstairs when ...

Challenge!

With your partner, finish the story.
What happened next?

Listening

1

35 Listen to Laura from Montreal, Canada, talk about an accident. Answer the questions.

- 1 When did it happen?
- 2 Where did it happen?
- 3 What was she doing?

35 Listen again and write T (true) or F (false) for each statement.

- 1 Laura was living in Japan at the time.
- 2 She was visiting a friend.
- 3 They went for a drive together.
- 4 She took the wrong road.
- 5 She forgot to drive on the left because she felt nervous.
- 6 She hit an ambulance and broke her leg.

Speaking

1 Write a sentence about one of the following.
It can be true or false.

- something you did last weekend
- someone you met last week
- an accident you had
- a great experience you remember

2

Make a group and read your sentence to your classmates. Your classmates should ask you questions to decide if your sentence is true or false.

- When did it happen?
- Where were you?
- What were you doing?
- What happened exactly?
- Who else was with you?
- How did you feel?

I twisted my ankle when I was climbing Mount Fuji last year.
