MOTIVATING STRATEGY

BE GOING TO for intentions

→ BE GOING TO is used to express future intentions that, at the moment of speaking, have already been decided:

I	am (I'm)	(not) going to	go do see play fight tell read go
you	are (you're)
he she it	is (he's she's it's)
you we they	are (you're we're they're)

Example:

- We are going to redecorate the living room next week.

- Are you going to play videogames?

- Do you think Sam's going to apply for the job?

Use the verbs in brackets in the 'be going to' tense and complete the sentences:

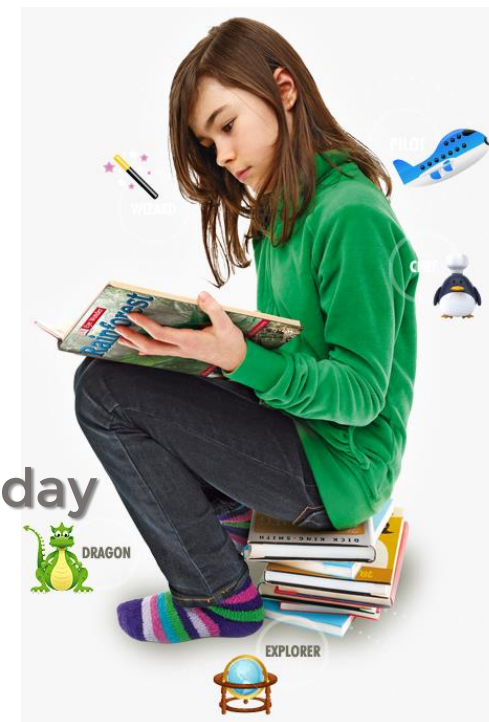

1.- I 'm going to think (think) more about people in need.

2.- Tom isn't going to use (not / use) his dad's laptop without asking him first.

3.- My friends and I are going to listen (listen) to the radio more often.

4.- Our grandparents are going to take (take) us on holiday with them this year.

5.- I 'm going to eat (eat) less junk food.

You're the best!!!
Let's go to the next!

Use 'be going to' and the words in brackets to ask questions in the following situations:

1.- Your friend wants to go shopping. (What / buy)

What is she/he going to buy?

2.- Your mum is getting dressed. (Where / go)

Where is she going to go?

3.- Your friend is holding a cinema ticket. (What film / see)

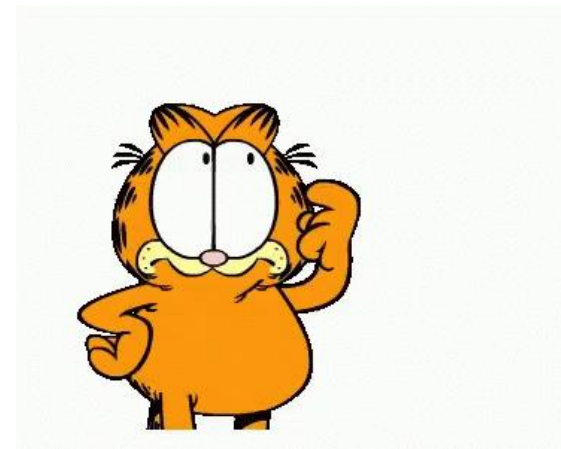

What film is your friend going to see?

4.- Your granny wants to buy a new vase. (Where / put)

Where is she going to put it?

5.- Your teacher is holding your test. (When / give)

When is she/he going to give it to me?

Excellent job!

Put the words in the correct order:

1.- you / to / tell / him / going / are / ?

Are you going to tell him?

2.- ~~going~~ / him / I'm / tell / No, / not / to

No, I'm not going to tell him.

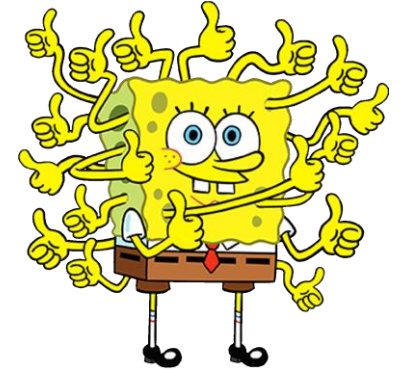

3.- ~~Steve~~ / going / is / to / be / the / barbecue / at / ?

Is Steve going to be at the barbecue?

4.- wear / I'm / jeans / going / a / T-shirt / to / and I'm going to wear jeans and a T-shirt.

Complete the conversation with “be going to” using the prompts:

- ROSIE Hi Sara! (1) Are you going to be at the barbecue tonight?
- SARA Yes, I am.
- ROSIE What (2) are you going to wear?
- SARA I don't know. What about you?
- ROSIE (3) I'm going to wear my summer dress.
- SARA Is Anita coming?
- ROSIE I think so. I'm going to send her a message and check.
- SARA (5) Is Steve going to be there?
- ROSIE Yes, he is.
- SARA Good. I have to go now. I'll see you at the barbecue.
- ROSIE Ok. What (6) are you going to do now?
- SARA (7) I'm going to get ready. I want to wash my hair.
- ROSIE Ok I'm going to do my homework. (rk). I'll see you later.
- SARA Bye.

Excellent job!

Great!!!
Let's go to the next!

Want to / would like to:

→ We use “want to” and “would like to” to express our intentions for future.

- “WOULD LIKE TO” is more polite than “WANT TO”

Example:

- I want to have pizza for dinner, please. → = (child to his father)

- I'd like to have some chips with my fish, please. →

= (customer to waiter)

Match the questions with the answers:

- 1.- Does your friend want to come with us?
- 2.- Would you like to listen to music?
- 3.- Would Barry prefer to go to the sport shop?
- 4.- Do they want to invite Paul to come shopping?
- 5.- Would Mary and Arthur like to go to a café?
- 6.- Would Jessica prefer to do the exam today?
- Yes, he would.
- No, they wouldn't.
- No, she doesn't.
- Yes, she would.
- Yes, I would.
- Yes, they do.

READING TIME!

Reading : Read the text carefully.

Plan your trip to
New York
with these top tips

Go to the Rockefeller Center

It's cheap, and from the top floor you can see Central Park, the Empire State Building, and more. Remember to take your camera!

Buy your tickets for the Statue of Liberty online

The Statue of Liberty is an American icon, but there are always long queues for tickets. Buy them on the internet before you go.

Explore the city on foot

Don't rent a car in New York City. The best thing is to walk – but good shoes are very important! Slow down and listen to the city. Sit on the grass in Central Park on a sunny day. But if you are tired, take a bus or the subway!

Read the article and mark the sentences with T (true) or F (false):

Visit Coney Island

Go to Coney Island beach by subway (an hour) and have a delicious New York hot dog. If it's hot, go for a swim in the Atlantic!

Have a meal at Good Enough to Eat

Good Enough to Eat on 83rd Street is a great traditional American restaurant serving breakfast, lunch, and dinner. It has salads, sandwiches, steak, and more.

1. The Rockefeller Center is expensive. F
2. The Rockefeller Center is a good place to take photos. T
3. To get tickets for the Statue of Liberty there are never long queues. F
4. It's a good idea to rent a car in N.Y. city. F
5. It takes 1 hour to walk from N.Y to Coney Island. F
6. "Good Enough to Eat" is open from morning to night. T
