Read the text carefully .

Joel:

I work in a fast food restaurant on the weekend. It's hard work because you have to work really fast and remember what the customers ordered. Also, the pay is quite bad, but my meals are free. I don't like it much because it gets very hot and crowded. On Saturdays, it gets really noisy with hundreds of customers. Some of them are my classmates and they get very lively. They make a lot of mess and I have to clean it up. I'm thinking about getting another job that's not so boring, but the thing is, it's really convenient. It's only five minutes from home. My dad says I should stay because I need the money. So maybe I'll stay a bit longer.

Meili:

I really love my job. I work Saturdays at Miki. It's a fashion store in the shopping mall. I can't wait to get there each week and see what new stuff there is. Most of the customers are girls my age. We sell clothes, shoes, bags and jewelry, all in the latest styles. The best thing is, I can buy anything I want before it goes in the store, and I get 50% discount. That's fantastic! I spend all my pay there. Often, my girlfriends come in and chat to me. Sometimes I buy something for them. The time goes by very fast. The only problem is, it's difficult to get to. My dad drives me there but he's not happy about it. But I tell him to think of all the money he's saving, because I never ask him for money for clothes!
