Hi Gabrielle,

I'm in Venice! I'm writing to you from Piazza San Marco, in the center of the city. This place is amazing! There aren't any cars, so everyone walks, or takes waterbuses or water taxis. There's a lot to do, so I get up early and go sightseeing. I usually walk because it's a small city and I like to take photographs of the old buildings. For lunch, I have some pasta, or a sandwich, and then in the afternoon, I visit museums. There are lots of interesting museums here.

It's very busy right now because it's Carnival. It's February, so the weather is cold and rainy sometimes, but that's not a problem — people are eating, dancing and having fun. It's a big party! There's music everywhere. Right now I'm sitting in a small restaurant, and having some ice-cream. It's wonderful!

See you soon,
