Reading

My name is Albert. I live in a town in England. It isn't very big, but there is everything we need. I live near the supermarket. On the right side, there is a bank and on the left there is a florist. Next to the florist, there is a grocery store.

At the end of the street there is a music store and also a bookstore, where I buy my comics. My sister always goes at the pet shop with our dog "Baby".

Every Saturday, there is an open market on Main Square. My mum, my sister and I go there to buy fruits and vegetables. After that, we go to the fish shop to buy fish and seafood. If mum needs some pills, we go to the drugstore before we go to the restaurant to meet dad.

While we shop, dad buys a newspaper in order to have something to do while he is waiting for us.

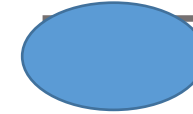

In the afternoon, we go to the department store. We pass the shoe store. Of course, my mum and my sister stop to look at the shoes through the window. Eventually, we go to the coffee shop to buy our desserts.
