Questions

George: Karen, are you ready for tomorrow?

Karen: Of course I am.

George: That's good. Oh! I want to tell you that yesterday was a nightmare.

Karen: Why do you say that?

George: In the morning, I had to book the tickets for our vacation, but I lost my wallet. Can you believe that?

Karen: Really? What did you do?

George: Fortunately, I had extra money in my pocket, so I didn't have to take out some money from the ATM.

Karen: I see. And could you buy new bags?

George: No, but I could buy some duty - free goods. They weren't expensive, so I saved money.

Karen: Oh, that's great! I have a doubt. Do we have to hire a translator? Remember, we are going to Portugal and I can't speak Portuguese.

George: Don't worry! When I was 15 years old, I took some lessons. So I can speak Portuguese.

Karen: That's perfect. Let's get on the plane and enjoy the trip!!!
