

ENGLISH

Chapter 11 Session B

Communication activities

ENGLISH

Communication activities

Unit 6 - Student A

You want to travel around Europe by camper next summer. Plan your trip. Then answer your partner's questions about the trip.

Your partner is planning to travel around Asia by train next summer. Ask him or her questions about the trip.

Where are you going to go?

```
Where / go?
What / do?
What / do if ... lose your ticket?
              get sick?
              don't understand the language?
              run out of money?
Where / go ... after / return home?
```

Unit 6 - Student B

Your partner is planning to travel around Europe by camper next summer. Ask him or her questions about the trip.

Where are you going to go?

```
Where / go?
What / do?
What / do if ... run out of gas?
the camper breaks down?
don't like the food?
get lost?
Where / go ... after / return home?
```

You want to travel around Asia by train next summer. Answer your partner's questions about the trip.

In your words

Complete the questionnaire. Make a group and share your results. Who is similar to you?

Are you an OPTIMIST or a PESSIMIST?

When you wake up in the morning, do you think "Great. Another day!" or "Oh no. Not again!"?
What's your outlook on life? Complete this questionnaire to find out. Circle the answers that are true for you.

think that .

- If I buy a lottery ticket,
- a I'll definitely win.
- b I might win
- c I won't win.

- 2 If I take a vacation,
- a the weather will be great.
- b I'll relax and have fun.
- c it'll be a disaster.

- 3 If I take an exam,
- a I'll get a great grade.
- b I'll do my best.
- c I'll fail.

- 4 If someone gives me a sweater,
- a it'll be perfect.
- b it might fit me.
- c it'll probably be the wrong size.
- 5 If I eat in a fancy restaurant,
- a the food will be amazing.
- b I'll have a good time.
- c it'll be really expensive.

Mostly as:

You are very positive and optimistic. However, perhaps you expect too much!

Mostly bs:

Congratulations. You have a realistic view of life.

Mostly cs:

Uh-oh! What's wrong with you? Cheer up and get a life!

2

Add one more question to the list below. Make a group and interview each other.

What will happen if ...

- global warming continues to get worse?
- space tourism becomes popular?

- oil runs out?
- many people live to be 120 years old?

With a partner, write three good pieces of advice for each situation. Make a group and discuss your ideas.

If you want to help the environment,

you should ...

you shouldn't ...

you might want to ...

If you want to lose weight,

you should ...

you shouldn't ...

you could try to ...

If you go abroad on vacation,

you should ...

you shouldn't ...

you might want to ...

★ Challenge!

With your partner, play the Consequences Game!

Take turns continuing the conversation.

A: What will happen if you forget to set your alarm clock tonight?

B: If I forget to set my alarm clock tonight, I won't wake up on time.

A: If you don't wake up on time, you'll be late for class.

B: If I'm late for class,

Listening

1

49 Listen to Shelly from San Diego, U.S., talk about things to do in and around San Diego. Number the places in the order you hear them (1–8).

Sea World	Hearst Castle
Hollywood	Santa Monica
Venice Beach	Balboa Park
Gaslamp Quarter	San Diego Zoo

9
4

49 Listen again and complete the statements.

1	If you go to San Diego, you'll definitely need to get around.
2	If you don't want to get wet at Sea World, you might want to take!
3	If you go to San Diego Zoo, you'll see over animals from almost every country.
4	You'll love Balboa Park, especially if you like
5	If you like, you'll love the beaches in San Diego.
6	If you want restaurants, bars and, then you should go to the Gaslamp Quarter.
7	If you like, you can go to Venice Beach in Santa Monica.
8	If you like, you should go to Hearst Castle.
9	If you come to California, you should go to Hollywood to ★ Challenge!

Work with a partner. Think of some good advice for travelers to your country.

If you want to see some good museums, you should go to ...

Speaking

Complete these sentences. Make a group and tell each other your plans. Your classmates should respond by showing interest and asking follow-up questions for more information.

A: If I'm not too tired tonight, I might go to the movies.

B: Oh really? What movie are you thinking of seeing?

If I'm not too tired tonight, I might ... If I see my friends on the weekend, we'll ... If I have time tomorrow, I'll ... If I take a vacation next summer, I'll ... When I leave this class, I'll ... I'll keep studying English until ... If the weather is good this weekend, I'll ... I won't go out tonight, unless ... After I leave this college, I'll probably ... I'll definitely ... before next week. Before I go to bed tonight, I'll ... I'll come to the next class, unless ... After lunch tomorrow, I'll ... As soon as this class ends, I'll ... I'll be very happy when ...